

To all scorers

- Ensure that 'Last Name, Initial', identifies players on the scorecards. Please do not use 'First names' or nicknames on scorecards.
- Identify the Captain, Wicketkeeper and Umpires on the scorecard.
- Record which side 'Won the Toss' and which side batted first.
- Record the times and overs of batsmen 'In' and 'Out'
- Record all 'Fall of Wicket' information, Batsman, Bowler, Fieldsman, How Out & Score.
- Use a dot for each ball received by a batsman when there are no runs scored so that the number of deliveries to a batman may be determined.
- Use a 'W' for a 'Wicket' in the bowler's statistics. A 'W' should not be used to indicate a 'Wide'
- 'Leg Byes' and 'Byes' need not be recorded in neither the batsmen's nor the bowler's statistics; just an entry in the 'Extras' is sufficient.
- Use a circle for a 'No Ball' in the bowler's statistics and mark one extra in the 'No Ball Extras'. If the batsman scores from the 'No Ball' then put a dot in the circle and mark one run to the batsman. Do not add another 'No Ball' in the 'Extras'. When compiling the bowler's statistics, remember that the circle is one run and a circle with a dot in it, is two runs. If the batsman scores more than one run off the 'No Ball', then write the number of runs run inside the circle, give the batsman the runs and remember to add the runs to bowlers total in addition to the initial 'o Ball' run.
- Use a '+' for a 'Wide' in the bowler's statistics and mark one extra in the 'Wides Extras'. If the batsman scores from the 'Wide' then put a dot for each run scored in one of the '+' quadrants, and mark the additional runs as 'Extras'. When compiling the bowler's statistics, remember that the '+' is one run and a '+' with one dot in it, is two runs and a '+' with two dots, is three runs, a '+' with three dots, is four runs and a '+' with four dots, is five runs.

- 'Leg Byes' and 'Byes' need not be recorded in neither the batsmen's nor the bowler's statistics; just an entry in the 'Extras' is sufficient.
- Use a circle for a 'No Ball' in the bowler's statistics and mark one extra in the 'No Ball Extras'. If the batsman scores from the 'No Ball' then put a dot in the circle and mark one run to the batsman. Do not add another 'No Ball' in the 'Extras'. When compiling the bowler's statistics, remember that the circle is one run and a circle with a dot in it, is two runs. If the batsman scores more than one run off the 'No Ball', then write the number of runs run inside the circle, give the batsman the runs and remember to add the runs to bowlers total in addition to the initial 'o Ball' run.
- Use a '+' for a 'Wide' in the bowler's statistics and mark one extra in the 'Wides Extras'. If the batsman scores from the 'Wide' then put a dot for each run scored in one of the '+' quadrants, and mark the additional runs as 'Extras'. When compiling the bowler's statistics, remember that the '+' is one run and a '+' with one dot in it, is two runs and a '+' with two dots, is three runs, a '+' with three dots, is four runs and a '+' with four dots, is five runs.
